The Amulet Voice Remote is a learning remote. You can teach it infra-red codes for any of your additional equipment, for example your TV or hi-fi amplifier, and then use buttons on your Amulet remote to control those devices.

Amulet supports two types of learning: basic keys, which are available all the time, and extended keys, which are available only when a particular device keymap is selected.